Work Experience

---

Prep Cook

Grasings - Carmel-by-the-Sea, CA

June 2021 to September 2022

My job would consist of showing up in the morning and getting all the food and cooking ingredients needed for that day. I would prepare them in a way that is easy and presentable to cook. After morning and afternoon prep work had finished I would work a cook line for special party orders we would have for that night or the next night. I would learn to cook prepare and present dishes such as escargot, Duck, and many other fine dishes

Cashier

Ocean Front - Monterey, CA

November 2020 to June 2021

I worked at a retail shop that would sell various souvenirs and memorable objects from the Monterey bay. My job consist of customer care, checking people out through the register, making the store presentable. Making sure everything is folded and even a little bit of maintenance if needed

Leather Worker

THE LEATHER COMPANY - Pacific Grove, CA

July 2019 to April 2020

This was a job that had me doing a wide variety of jobs. From tracing out a design and plans on paper and bringing them to life through cutting sewing and painting leather to create a final product that the customer would love. A lot of communication skills were needed to help understand customers needs and help in my best way possible. I would as well work a cash register as long as do needed maintenance
