Other Qualifications and Attributes

- Extensive years providing high-level, knowledgeable, skilled care for my father, Joseph, who acquired Parkinson's disease in 2009. From this unique life experience, I feel I bring a great deal of personal development, dedication, compassion, and competent commitment to excellence and the highest standards of care. Additionally, I am currently seeking my private pilot's license, which requires, like medical licensing, proficient qualifications, extensive training, meticulous attention to detail, and adhering to required flight reviews every two years to stay current.
