

To Whom It May Concern:

In response to your recent job opening, please consider my résumé in your search for a physical therapy team leader. I am dedicated to lifelong learning in my profession to provide the best evidence based practice for the care of my patients. I take pride in being a determined and motivated professional that will bring quality patient care and good work ethics to your facility.

I am seeking a work environment that will provide the experience to promote my continued growth as a physical therapist. I see your facility as an opportunity to work with seasoned, experienced therapists and a place with opportunities for advancement and growth within the company. It would truly be an honor and privilege to be a part of your practice if given the opportunity for employment in your setting.

I look forward to calling you within two weeks to inquire about the status of the position. If you have any additional questions or comments, please feel free to contact me via email or at (432) 352-8122.

Sincerely,

Gino Rojas, DPT
