

Trina Sydorowicz

Staff Nurse - Home Health, Ministry Home Care

Nekoosa, WI 54457

trinasyd16@gmail.com

(920) 475-9353

Registered Nurse with a proven track record in providing quality nursing care for the stable and critically ill pediatric, adult and geriatric patients. Excels in high stress/multi-task environments requiring independent decision-making and team collaboration.

License

Registered Professional Nurse, Wisconsin State License

Work Experience

RN-School Nurse

WRPS - Wisconsin Rapids, WI

July 2017 to Present

Assist students/families/staff with medical issues, medications, safety plans, and illness in a school setting. Education and Training on cpr, medication management, emergency medications, and more. I currently work with high school students.

Hospice RN Case Manager

Heartland Hospice - Stevens Point, WI

March 2015 to July 2017

Assist with comfort of patient who is eligible for hospice benefit in home or a different living environment. Communicate effectively with doctors, families, cna, social workers, spiritual care, and fellow RN's to provide best care. Education effectively to families and staff on what to expect and provide emotional support.

Staff Nurse

Home Health, Ministry Home Care - Wisconsin Rapids, WI

January 2009 to March 2015

Provide skilled nursing to patients in their homes, CBRF's: vitals, lab draws, assessment, dressing changes, wound vac changes, medication management, drain care, IV care, etc.

- * Responsible for care plans on each patient to ensure meeting goals of care for discharge.
- * Communicate effectively with doctors, case managers, supervisors, families, and other staff regarding patient plan of care and projected goals.
- * Computerized charting on personal laptop
- * Teaching patients and families on different topics concerning their specific needs and concerns.

Clinic Triage Nurse

Home Health, Ministry Home Care - Waupaca, WI

April 2010 to August 2010

Triage patients and family members via telephone.

- * Provide education to patients and family on wide variety of family practice questions, labs, tests, results, etc.
- * Work individually and in team members.
- * Responsible for effective communication between all providers in clinical setting.
- * Refill medications per protocols.
- * Able to utilize computer program effectively for charting, research, and various educational tools.

Nurse

Neuro/Trauma, St. Joseph's Hospital - Marshfield, WI
September 2008 to September 2008

Assess and provide appropriate care to adult patients with traumatic injuries, strokes, seizures, brain tumors, Parkinson's disease, etc.

- * Responsible for monitoring patient's for: change in condition, change in vital signs, communication with doctors, Nurse Practitioners on appropriate medication changes, changing dressings, looking for infection in surgical patients, and maintaining a safe environment for the patient.
- * Teaching to patient and family during hospital stay up until discharge.
- * Computerized charting on all patients.
- * Team work environment, effective communication between everyone you come in contact with

Nurse

Theda Clark Hospital - Neenah, WI
2006 to January 2006

Provide primary nursing care before and after a broad range of surgical procedures to in-patients of all ages (mainly adults) with medical-surgical, orthopedic, or neurological problems.

- * Responsible for written nursing care plans which included assessment and intervention of rapidly changing patient status, in collaboration with multi-disciplinary team.
- * Insert IV's and give pain medications IV, IM, SQ, or orally (pre/post operatively), perform EKG's, monitor respiratory status after epidural/intrathecal injection in OR, hang blood, and titration cardiac/ blood pressure or insulin drips.
- * Assess and manage allergic and life-threatening responses to procedures.
- * Provide patient and family teaching, including emotional support.
- * Assigned to frequent resource/staffing responsibilities.
- * Admit and discharge patients on a daily basis (quick moving pace)

Clinical Technician and Graduate Nurse

Theda Clark Hospital - Neenah, WI
2004 to 2006

Take vital signs and blood sugars, and report abnormal to the RN.

- Multi-task between 10-12 patients.
- Perform bathing to patients, as well as ambulation post operatively.
- Empty and record intake and output of drains.
- Perform EKG's
- Transition from role of CT to that of the nurse.
- Experience the nursing role in patient care with guidance of another nurse.

Internship

Milwaukee Children's Hospital - Milwaukee, WI
2004 to 2004

Assisted RN with treatment of patients

* Administer medications

* Executed delegation to other staff members, Observed progress of patients as if I was their primary RN

* Documentation of care

* Education to family

Education

Bachelor's

Skills

- Nursing
- Hospice Care
- Case Management