

Angel Williams

Registered Nurse - University of Wisconsin Hospital and Clinics

Verona, WI

-Email me on Indeed: <http://www.indeed.com/r/Angel-Williams/58cbfa63d3b26c47>

Work Experience

Registered Nurse

University of Wisconsin Hospital and Clinics- Med/Surg Float Pool

February 2015 to Present

- Float to 14 different inpatient units: Rehab, Psych, Trauma, Care Initiation, General Surgery, Geriatrics, General Medical, Gynecology, Urology, Plastics, Neuro Medical Surgery, Orthopedics, Medical/ Surgical Transplant, Family Medicine/Forensics, Cardiology, Peripheral Vascular Surgery, Cardiothoracic
- Flexible with core staff members to accommodate staffing needs.
- Manage the care of medically complex patients, by tailoring the nurse care plans to meet the needs of patients, including but not limited to infectious diseases, uncontrolled diabetes, renal disorders, multi system failure, behavior, psychosocial, and cardiovascular disorders.
- Promote quality care by assuring the implementation of the assessment plan. Evaluating the outcome and following up with physicians and other members of the interdisciplinary team as changes in patient condition occurs.
- Support patients and families emotionally through the use of a positive attitude, compassion, and patience.

Registered Nurse

University of Wisconsin Hospital and Clinics- General Medicine and Geriatrics

April 2013 to February 2015

- Preceptor to new staff members in efforts to model safe patient care and promote staff retention and satisfaction.
- Functioning as senior team member in efforts to collaborate, manage, and support fellow colleagues in an effort to troubleshoot difficult patient and clinical situations.
- Serving on Geriatric and Cultural Congruence/ Diversity Nurse Resource team functioning as leader within these disciplines for my colleagues.
- Managed the care of medically complex patients, by tailoring the nurse care plans to meet the needs of patients, including but not limited to infectious diseases, uncontrolled diabetes, renal disorders, multi system failure, and cardiovascular disorders
- Promoted quality care by assuring the implementation of the assessment plan. Evaluating the outcome and following up with physicians and other members of the interdisciplinary team as changes in patient condition occurs.
- Supported patients and families emotionally through the use of a positive attitude, compassion, and patience.

Registered Nurse

Alliance Services Health Care Staffing, Inc
February 2013 to April 2013

- Contracted as Local Agency RN at University of Wisconsin Hospital on the General Medicine/ Geriatric Unit
- Managing the care of medically complex patients, by tailoring the nurse care plans to meet the needs of patients, including but not limited to infectious diseases, uncontrolled diabetes, renal disorders, multi system failure, and cardiovascular disorders.
- Promoting quality care by assuring the implementation of the assessment plan. Evaluating the outcome and following up with physicians and other members of the interdisciplinary team as changes in patient condition occurs.
- Supporting patients and families emotionally through the use of a positive attitude, compassion, and patience.

Nurse - Personal Care Coordinator

Registered
November 2011 to February 2013

- Coordinated and managed the personal care needs of CLA clients by providing supervisory, training and assessment visits in accordance with State Regulations and Rules.
- Provided Case management via Home Visits to assess clients' health care needs, monitored clients' progress, and confer with the clients' healthcare team to address level of care issues.
- Ensured competency of Personal Care Workers by providing in home training and education during orientation and on a regular basis throughout Personal Care Workers employment.
- Ensured compliance with agency policies and procedures and Medicaid Certification regulations and rules by fulfilling all nursing supervisory responsibilities and maintaining updated and accurate documentation.
- Maintained a high level of customer satisfaction by practicing good communication with Clients, Personal Care Workers, Case Managers, and all departments within Community Living Alliance.
- Supported process improvement by monitoring and reporting potential quality and utilization issues and making recommendations when appropriate.

Nurse

Registered
March 2009 to April 2012

- Provided moderate sedation for patients undergoing bronchoscopies .Managed specialized nursing care for patients with acute or chronic respiratory disorders, who may have tracheostomies, ventilators, or require extensive respiratory treatments to maintain normal breathing without mechanical support.

- Responsible for managing nursing care of patients requiring critical drips, including but not limited to insulin drips, heparin drips, propofol drips, and various other cardiac and sedative drips.
- Managed the care of medically complex patients, by tailoring the nurse care plans to meet the needs of patients with catastrophic illnesses, including but not limited to infectious diseases, uncontrolled diabetes, renal disorders, multi system failure, cardiovascular disorders, and various neurological disorders.
- Promoted quality care by assuring the implementation of the assessment plan. Evaluated the outcome and followed up with physicians and other members of the interdisciplinary team as changes in patient condition occurred.
- Supported patients and families emotionally through the use of a positive attitude, compassion, and patience.

Education

Bachelor of Science in Nursing in Nursing

Edgewood College - Madison, WI

2009

Nursing Licenses

RN

Skills

- Med Surg
- RN
- Hospital
- Staff Nurse
- Home Health
- Medical Surgical
- Critical Care Experience
- Medication Administration
- Case Management
- EMR Systems
- Vital Signs

Certifications and Licenses

BLS, ACLS